

23rd October 2025

Dear Parents, Carers and Students,

I hope this letter finds you well.

I write to inform you that as a reward for excellent attendance in Half Term (1) we will allow all years a non-uniform day tomorrow.

Attendance in all year groups has consistently been at above the 90% rate this year to date and we have seen significant improvements in attendance compared to Half Term (1) last year.

Well done to all year groups and thank you for your support as families.

Our standards around other aspects of pupil presentation such as no make-up, no false nails, no false eyelashes and all children using backpacks as school bags on this day still apply.

Our Half Term (1) newsletter and a fuller end of half term letter with arrangements for the first day back and a focus on Behaviour in the school will be with you tomorrow.

Kind regards,

Mathew Rogers
Principal
